

Call for Papers: “Symposium on shaping the modern Interest free banking landscape in Ethiopia”.

Commercial Bank of Ethiopia is on the eve of celebrating its’ 10th year anniversary for its interest free banking service with its brand CBE Noor for the service. As one of its celebration programs, the bank has planned to conduct a “Symposium on shaping the modern Interest free banking landscape in Ethiopia”.

We are, therefore, pleased to invite submissions for the Symposium scheduled for November 2023, organized by the CBENOOR 10th-year anniversary organizing Committees. This call is open to scholars, practitioners, and other interested parties to submit abstracts centered on Interest free banking and its integration within the Ethiopian financial, taxation, and legal landscapes.

We are particularly interested in papers that address, but are not limited to, the following topics:

- The 10th year trends and developments in Interest free banking in Ethiopia.
- The challenges and prospects of interest free banking in Ethiopia.
- Implication of Ethiopian interest free finance and legal frameworks on interest free banking.
- International best practices in Interest free finance’s taxation, legal and Sharia governance frameworks.
- Implications of Interest Free Banking on Financial Inclusion and the Economy.

Abstracts must not exceed 350 words and should outline the research question, employed methodology, key findings, and their implications. It shall be emailed to address: anuwar113@gmail.com. The paper shall be submitted before November 07, 2023.

The selected paper will be presented and discussed at the Symposium. It will also be published in the CBENOOR 10th-year anniversary booklets. The selected paper Author will be contacted for the presentation.
